

LILT / FLACS LOTE SURVEY OF LI DISTRICTS FOR THE 2009-10 SCHOOL YEAR

In a cooperative venture, LILT and FLACS surveyed LOTE Departments across Nassau and Suffolk Counties to ascertain the state of LOTE on Long Island for this current school year and to:

- Discover the impact, if any, of the current economic downturn on LOTE on LI.
- Despite the fact that most budgets passed last May, to ascertain the extent of job cuts in current LOTE staffing and the availability of newly created jobs for those just entering the field.
- Find trends in the demise of certain languages and the rise of others on LI.

Below are the results of this survey. We hope you find this information informative, interesting and hopeful. NB: N = Nassau, S= Suffolk, NR = No response

Total # of districts reporting: 28 (14 - N, 14 - S)

1. In your opinion, as a leader of your department, is LOTE treated on par with other core subjects in your school district? Yes: 10 - 35.7% No : 16 - 57% , Yes & No: 2

Please comment on the differences you see in your district between LOTE and other core subject areas:

- * Sometimes there is no LOTE Dept. Head.
- * LOTE Supervisors “battle” with administration for things they want to implement.
- * LOTE is sometimes “forgotten”, for ex.: increased enrollment and not allowed to hire while, books, supplies.
- * Cuts made first in LOTE before other core subject areas.
- * LOTE is last to be input during Master Schedule construction
- * Singleton classes become multi-level, singleton classes
- * No Honors classes - - open enrollment to AP/College courses allowed
- * No Middle School Teaming
- * Not included in district-wide training
- * Non-sequential scheduling (skipping a year)
- * Not taught K-12
- * FLES/FLEX considered an interruption to elementary school day
- * Leaders supervise more buildings than other administrators
- * Delay in adoption of technology, e.g. Smartboards
- * Some parents, counselors, teachers, parents and students do not see it as on par with Math, English, Social Studies and Science.
- * Some LOTE Inclusion Classes do not have any TAs to help
