

TEACHER INCENTIVE GRANT

The Teacher Incentive Grant is for a proposed project or projects a teacher may wish to inaugurate for which a district would not normally budget. The maximum for this award is six hundred dollars ($600). The Committee will entertain expenses only for the following: books, magazines, realia, and media materials (CD's, DVD's and photo memory cards for digital cameras).

Regarding Your Topic: If you are in doubt as to any of your expenses being covered, please contact the Committee Chairperson before submitting your application.

If Your Grant Is Approved: Winning grants will be reimbursed upon completion of your project and submission of paid, qualifying receipts.

TO APPLY:

The applicant must:

- Submit one (1) letter in support of your project from a building or district supervisor.
- Complete the application in support of your proposal.
- Agree to send a short article about your project for publication at the end of the first year of implementation (August 1st).
- Agree to give a short presentation at a General Membership Meeting.

REQUIREMENTS:

- The applicant must be a current member of LILT for two consecutive years.

Current members of LILT's Executive Board are not eligible for this grant.
